

If you are not sure about the benefits of Online Training Courses, please look at the following:

Online Training VS Classroom Training
Online Training	Classroom Training
Discounted price: $449	Price: $499
Comprehensive CQE and CSSBB training in the comfort of your home.  	Training is in a classroom that you have to drive to in Irvine or participate via webinar
Study when you feel alert  	Students arrive at classroom tired after a long day at work and some have a long drive to class.
You study at your own pace and have one full year availability to the Online Course. You have complete control over the training session, you can pause or playback at any time and you can view the training sessions multiple times. You can download the PDF files of the training materials. 	Because the classroom/webinar training is a 14 week long Refresher Course, the pace is quick and many students discover that their knowledge of statistics is rustier than they thought and thus the pace seems a little too fast for an enjoyable comprehensive training experience.
You have full Instructor support to answer all questions promptly via email.     	You have full Instructor support to answer all questions promptly via email. Additionally, some questions are addressed during the class.
Provide several Live Instructor Led Webinar Study Group Sessions per quarter to address:  <ol style="list-style-type: none"> How to use the recommended calculator to solve Statistics problems Explain and solve problems/practice questions on topics that students select for discussion Answer any other questions the students have Because the Online Courses are available for a full year, there are many more opportunities to make this an enjoyable comprehensive learning experience.	Not available

A message to Online Course students:

You won't be alone in your quest for new knowledge. You will have full instructor support via the Live Instructor Led Webinar Study Group Sessions and you will also get a prompt response to all questions you submit directly to the instructor or to ARE, LLC. All of the Online Course Instructors have a Teachers Heart and they are committed to helping you succeed with your career goals.

